iost. Colonel Shackleford then moved adjournment until 5 o'clock, on which the vote stood 18 for and 12 against.

Agreement Renefiel.

When the members of the committee filed in the assembly room at 5 o'clock there was an evident feeling that an agreement had been reached. No time was lost in transacting the real business of the day.

Colonel C. F. Day, of Isle of Wight, moved that nominating speeches be limited to five minutes, and R. A. James, of Danville, made a motion that seconding speeches be limited to three minutes. The motions were carried. Clerk Brenaman then began the call of the committee by districts for nominations.

The First District was called, and the committee by districts for nominations.

The First District was called, and T. J. Downing, of Lancaster, announced that the district desired that it be passed for the present. The Second District did likewise. There was no response when the Third, Fourth and Fifth Districts were called.

Mr. Hankins Nominated.

Upon the call of the Sixth District.
C. C. Barksdale, of Hallfax, arose and placed in nomination the name of J. C. Hankins, who was chief clerk under the late Mr. Eggleston. Mr. Barksdale said that Mr. Hankins had been in the affice of the Secretary of the Commonwealth for twenty-odd years and was thoroughly familiar with the duties of of the position. He said that while Mr. Hankins's work had kept him in Richmend, he had always maintained his legal residence in Halifax county, and still votes there, and that the esteem in which he is held by his home secole was shown by a petition to the but they are his legal residence in Halifax county, and still votes there, and that the esteem in which he is held by his home people was shown by a petition to the State Committee asking for Mr. Hankins's nomination, signed by most of the leading citizens of Houston and South Boston and many of the people of the county. The mention of the name of the candidate was given generous applause.

The Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Districts made no response to the call. When the Tenth District was called Mr. Whitehead moved to make the nomination of Mr. Hankins ununimous.

Colonel James is Named.

Before this motion was put the First District asked that it be again called. This was done, and Mr. Downing began his speech for the nomination of Colonel James. He said that his choice was a resident of Richmond a man of Colonel James. He said that his choice was a resident of Richmond a man of ripe years and complete experience; that his Democracy cannot be questioned, and that he had been a faithful fighter in all the buttles waged by the party.

"This," continued Mr. Downing, "Is a delicate, rather a complex, situation, and it is incumbent upon this committee to make a nomination that will add to and strengthen the ticket alloads or make the modification of the make a nomination of the matter to make a nomination of the make a nomination of the make the modification of the make while not a candidate, had been proint faction of our party is not recognized, and it would be the part of wisdom to give that wing representation. I am advised that the nomination of the make when it is the content of the man whom I shall name will add thousands of votes to the ticket in the city of Richmond and in the Third District. It behooves us at this juncture is strengthen the ticket and so insure success. I place in nomination Colonel B. O. James."

This nomination was greeted with enthusiastic applause.
Colonel Shackleford seconded the nomination of Colonel James, saying that he believed his selection would be a great help to the party. This expression, coming from a supporter of Mr. Green, indicated that the latter's strength would go to Colonel

The nomination of Mr. Hankins was seconded by Mr. Whitehead, who said that from the standpoint of party policy he believed no one would, inspire more confidence or strengthen the licket more than Mr. Hankins. "He is well spoken of everywhere," said Mr. Whitehead.

E. L. C. Scott, of Hanover, also seconded Mr. Hankins's nomination. Mr. Scott said he believed Mr. Hankins was the choice of the people of Richmond for the position.

Result of Ballat.

No further speechmaking being offered, the vote was taken, resulting as follows:

Judge Stockbridge, in the City Court to-day, rendered a decision under which the board of supervisors of elections will be compelled to place on the ticket to be voted next month the name of Mrs. Anna Smith Lang as a candidate of the Socialist party for the House of Delegates of the Maryland Legislature, the board having refused to place her name on the ticket because of her sex. Judge Stockbridge declared the board of supervisors is without power to pass upon the qualifications of candidates, that function resting, in the case of Mrs. Lang, entirely with the House of Delegates as the sole judge of the qualifications of those elected to that body.

Entry of New Cabinet Believed to Usher In Period of Tranquility.

MADRID, October 22.—The fall of Premier Maura and the Conservative Cabinet has produced a feeling of relief and encourages the hope that a period of internal tranquility has been ushered in. It is now an open secret that Maura's refusal to give King Alfonso an opportunity to pardor Ferror is regretted by His Majesty.

In an interview to-day Senor Moret y Prendergast, Premier of the new Liberal Cabinet, explained that because of recent personal bereavements, he having lost by death his wife, his son and a daughter, and the fact of his advancing years, he had not wished to assume power. Nevertheless, the unfavorable situation at home and the distrust of the Spanish government as manifested abroad, had convinced him that it was his patriotic duty to accept the leadership. He declared that the Liberal govornment would exactly reverse the policy of Maura and maintain social order with due responsibility for the law.

Extracts Bullet With Jackkins, Keeps Secret From Parchis, WINSTED CONN., October 22—Alexander Regner, thirteen years old, who attends the first district school, was accidentally shot in the leg by a playmate named Carter, two weeks ago, a rifle ball being imbedded in the call next to the bone.

Regner and Carter, after pledging to secrecy their three young companions on the squirrel shooting trip, turned inlysician and surgeon.

The boys plugged and bandaged the wound with cotton each afternoon after school, and with two Jackkinives downed by Regner, extracted the rifle bullet. Regner had to disclose the the secret to his mother last night, for she discovered the wound, which had healed nicely.

After Whitney had been sentenced he asked permission to speak. He got it, whereupon he talked for nearly an hour, pleading for the woman, and saying he alone was to blame.

He asserted he had been private secretary to William H, Tatt when the latter was on the Panama Canal Commission. Afterwards, Whitney said, he was a stenographer for "Abe" Hummel and other lawyers.

He begged Judge Mulqueen to let him and the Maidhef woman remain in the Tombs until next Tuesday so that they might be married before going to prison. Judge Mulqueen granted the request.

This was Bryan's special command.

This was Bryan's special command McCarren was always opposed to Democrate radicalism. He was never the friend of Bryan and never the friend of Hearst. He only took up with Cayrnor because he believed that Gaynor, with all his radical utterances, would he be believed that Gaynor, with all his radical utterances, would he be believed that Gaynor, with all his radical utterances, would he be believed that Gaynor, with all his radical utterances, would he equally divided between his men and the opposition. He won his fights in nineteen of the twenty-three alstricts, and thus proved that the charges of 1907 that his delegates to State conventions were haseless.

The sudden elimination of McCarren has revived the ancient fear of, the Brooklyn Democrats that Tammany would gooble them up. The question of who would lead the defense in McCarren's graph of the defense in McCarren's absolute domination over the Brooklyn organization in this respect is apt to cause the control of the most prompt attention, as showing the Senators absolute domination over the Brooklyn organization in the most prompt attention, as the most prompt attention and the prompt attentio
